SOCIETY OF SAINT VINCENT de PAUL
A BIG THANK YOU!!!

2018 was another challenging year for a lot of people but most especially the poor of our Parish who struggle daily to put food on the table and make ends meet. For the second year in a row, your Parish's SSVP Conference also faced another financial challenge meaning quite simply that we were again facing the possibility of not being able to provide a proper Christmas meal as well as toys and gifts for our clients.

However...based on very strong support from the Parish community including firstly a special thanks to the Event Planners through the Parish Bazaar, those of you attending the St Rose Choir concert, donations of $funds over December and toys under our Angel tree, we were able to fully assist over 172 families or 550 adults and children totalling $12,500 in assistance.

May God Bless you and your families for your generosity.

DOCTRINAL CORNER

Are we still obliged to observe the Eucharistic fast?

Yes, we are. Canon 919 states: "Whoever is to receive the blessed Eucharist is to abstain for at least one hour before Holy Communion from all food and drink, with the sole exception of water and medicine."

Fasting is different from dieting, so even if your coffee, tea or juice is sugar-free, you should still not drink any of it at least an hour before Holy Communion. Food means anything that is: a) edible, b) taken by mouth, and c) swallowed. In addition to breakfast, lunch, dinner and snack, "food" refers to candies, breath mints, lozenges and anything that is put into the mouth to be dissolved or chewed and swallowed. Chewing gum is not swallowed but once the juice is swallowed, the fast is broken.
